The Williamstown Literary Festival returns May 13th – 14th 2005. Like the successful 2004 festival it aims to provide a local cultural event focusing on literature, drama and writing which showcases established and emerging writers and literary figures who have strong links to Williamstown or the Western Suburbs. Keynote speakers give access to more well-known authors while local, emerging or newly published authors participate in the various program events.

Featuring

The program for 2005 features:

- Arnold Zable
- Allison Croggon
- Mike Brady
- Andy Griffiths
- Helen Morse
- Vin Maskell
- Leigh Hobbs
- Jane Clifton
- Dorothy Richards
- Shaun Micallef
- Bob Graham
- and many more...

Programme Highlights

- Writing workshops
- Sport and Comedy Panels
- Ada Cambridge Prize
- Book Publishers Fair
- Literary Lunch
- Book Launches
- Illustration Workshops
- Children's Activities

Opening Night Play

Friday 13th May

A special feature of this year's festival will be the inaugural presentation of The Ada Cambridge Prize for biographical short story writing.

The presentation will take place on the opening night Friday 13th May at 7.00pm

Also featuring on Friday 13th May at 8.00pm is a performance of Ada Cambridge Live a play by Rod Wetherell

Literary Lunch

Saturday 14th May

Enjoy a basket lunch, sip champagne, sit back and enjoy a talk by one of Australia's top writers and literary raconteurs whose name will be announced shortly.

A ticketed event followed by book signings.

Live Book Club

Saturday 14th May

Read Helen Garner's best seller 'Joe Cinque's Consolation' (available at Seagulls Bookshop). Session moderator Robin Grove. Who needs Oprah!
